

Brompton & Sawdon Community Primary School Vision and Values

JAN 2021

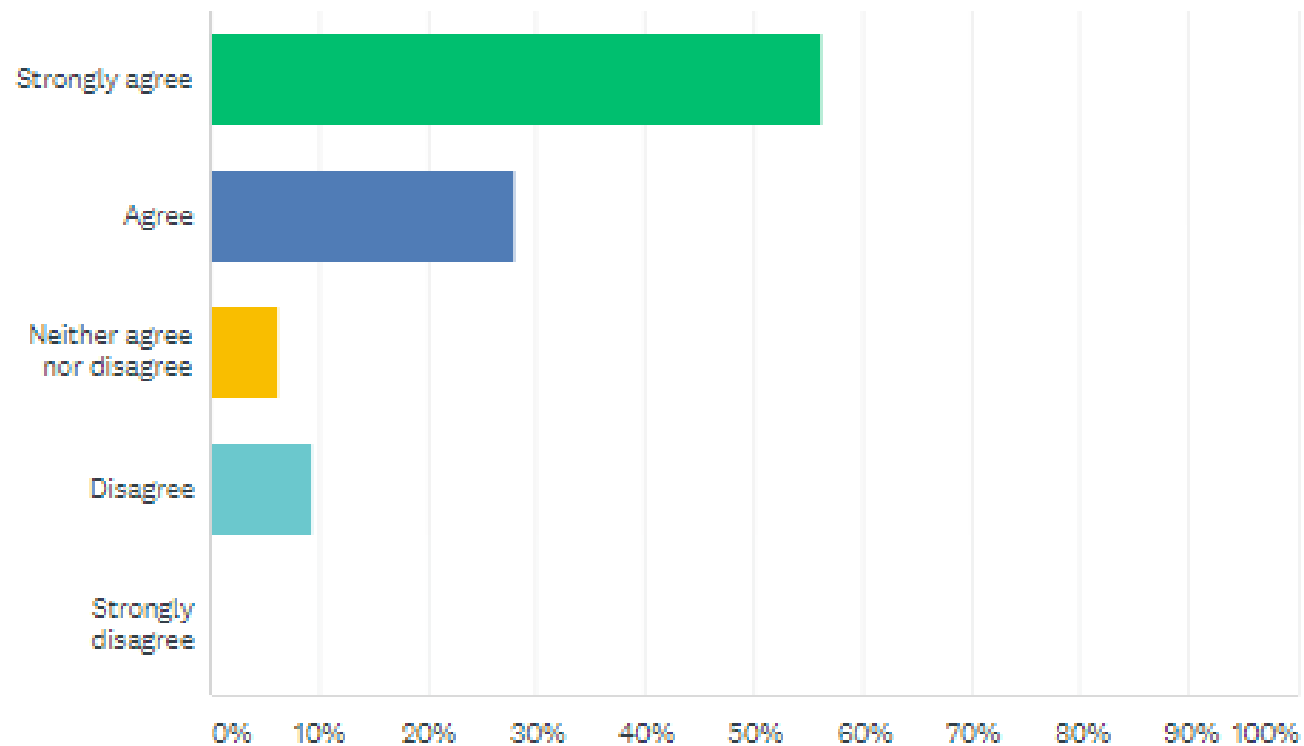

Response

32 parental responses from 54 families from all classes.

Committed to Excellence

One of our mottos is 'Committed to Excellence'. Do you agree that this accurately represents our school and is something we 'live and breathe'?

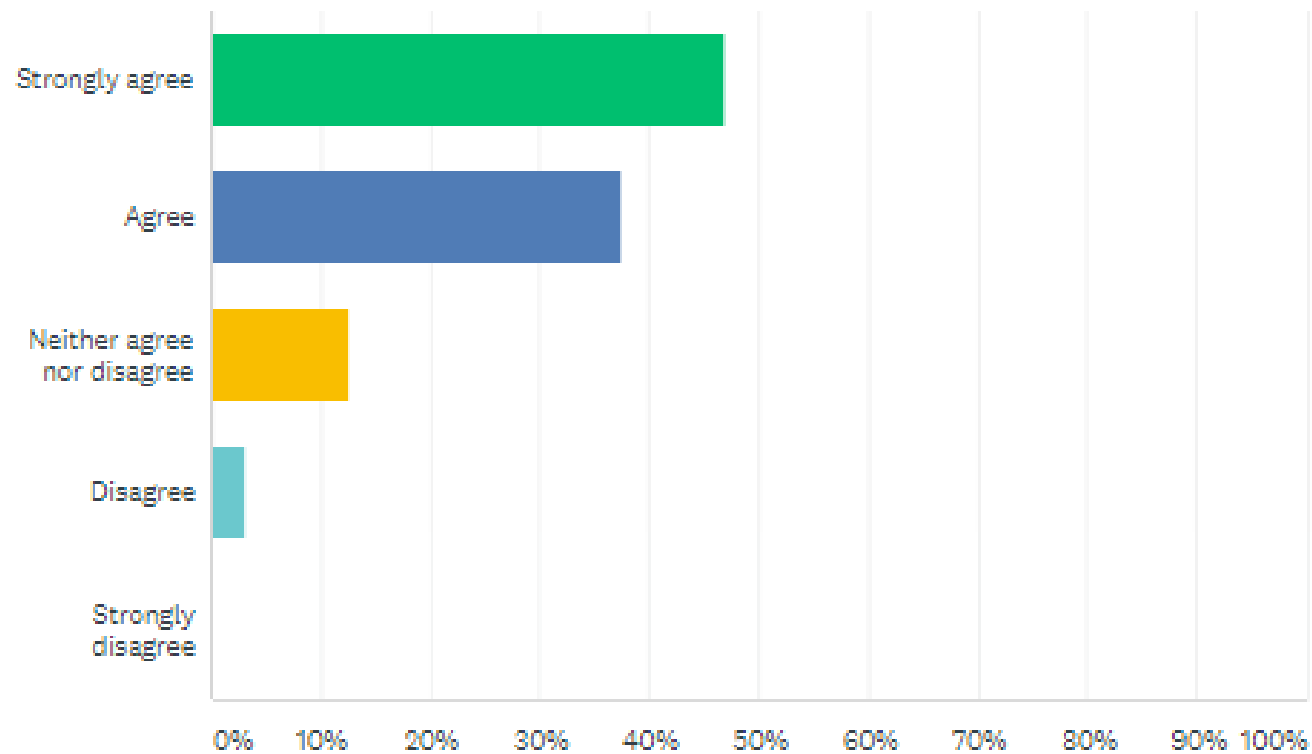

Answered: 32 Skipped: 0

Ready to Fly

Another of our mottos is 'Ready to Fly'. Do you agree that this accurately represents our school and is something we 'live and breathe'?

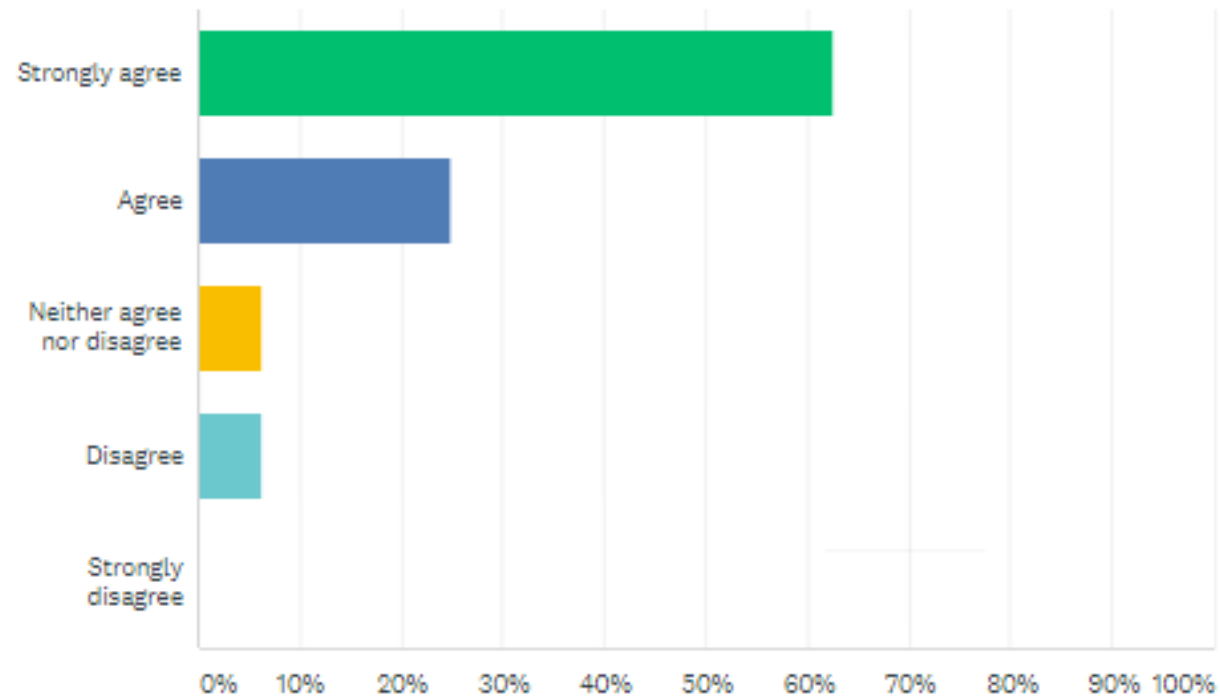

Answered: 32 Skipped: 0

For the Children

One suggestion for a new school motto which may better represent the school is 'For the Children'. Do you agree that this accurately represents our school and is something we 'live and breathe'?

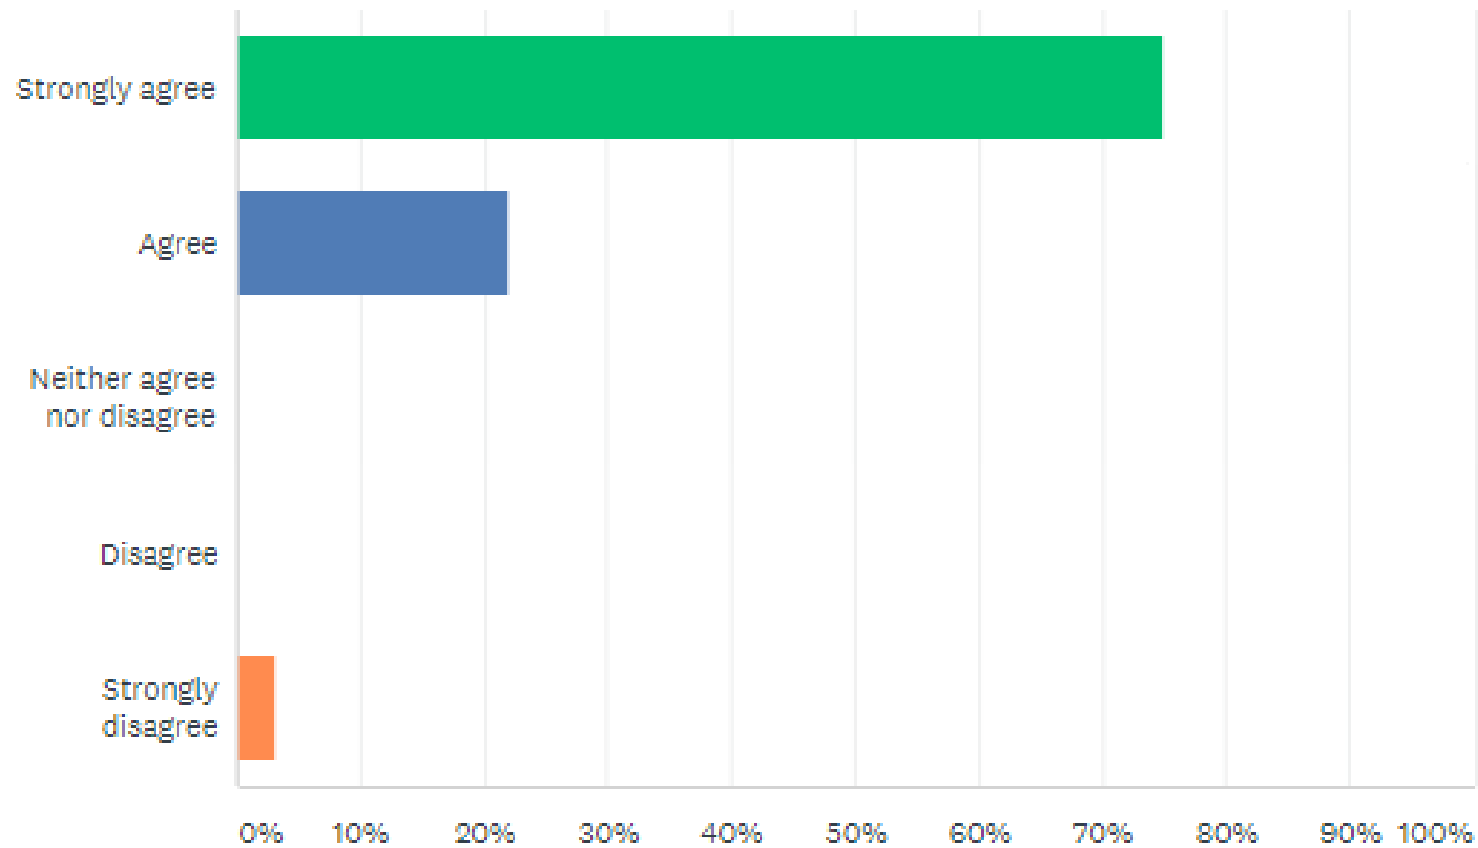

Answered: 32 Skipped: 0

Comparison

	Committed to Excellence	Ready to Fly	For the Children
Strongly Agree	56%	46%	63%
Agree	28%	37%	25%
Disagree	9%	3%	6%

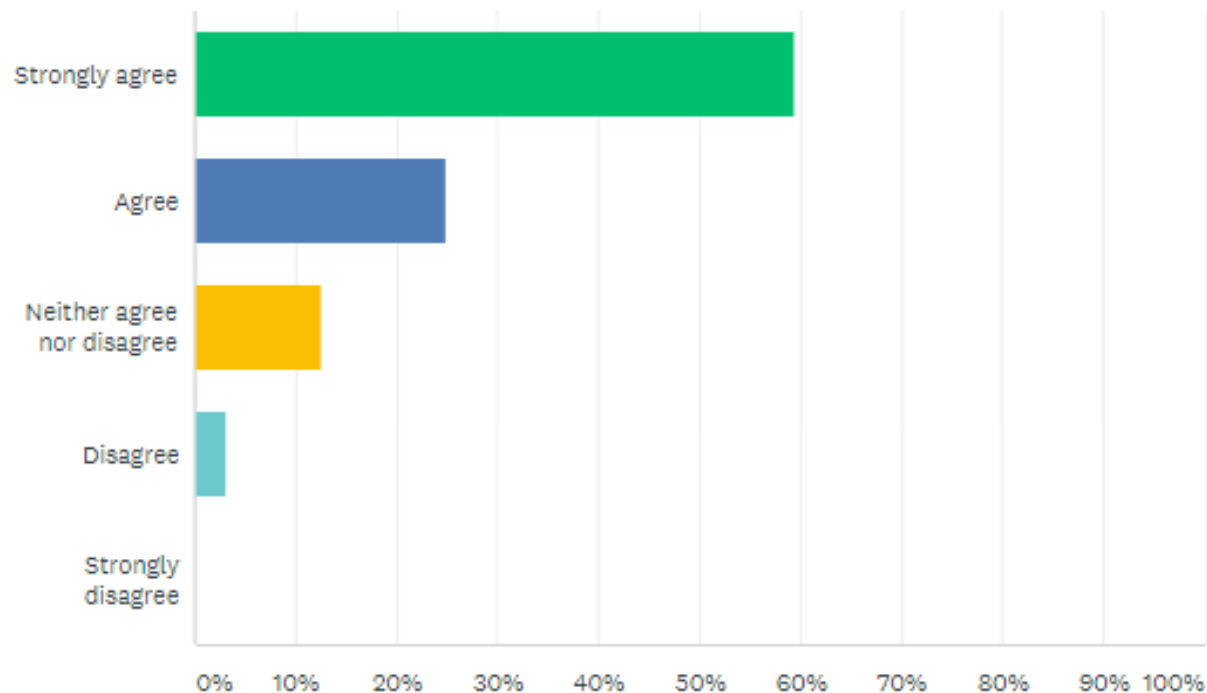

Values/pillars - Family

Values/pillars - Nature

Another suggested pillar or value is 'Nature'. Do you agree that 'Nature' is something the school represents, lives and breathes?

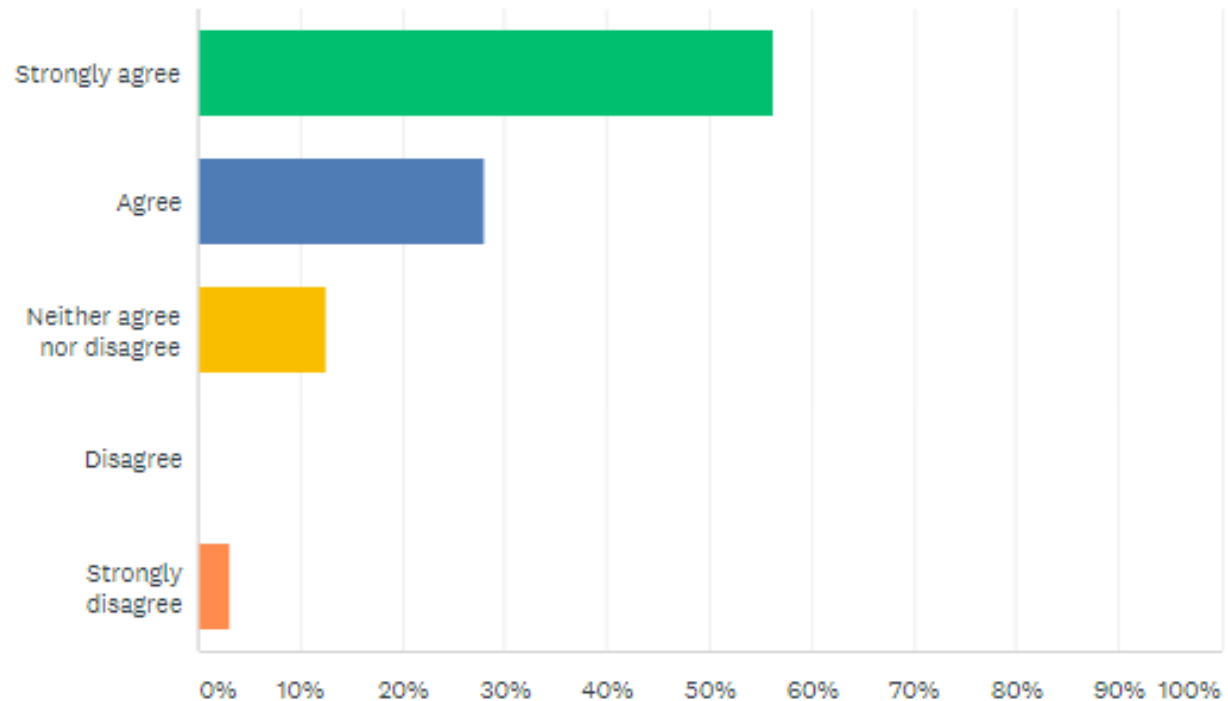

Answered: 32 Skipped: 0

Values/pillars - Rainbow

Another suggested pillar or value is 'Rainbow' (relating to Wordsworth link and general acceptance of all people). Do you agree that 'Rainbow' is something the school represents, lives and breathes?

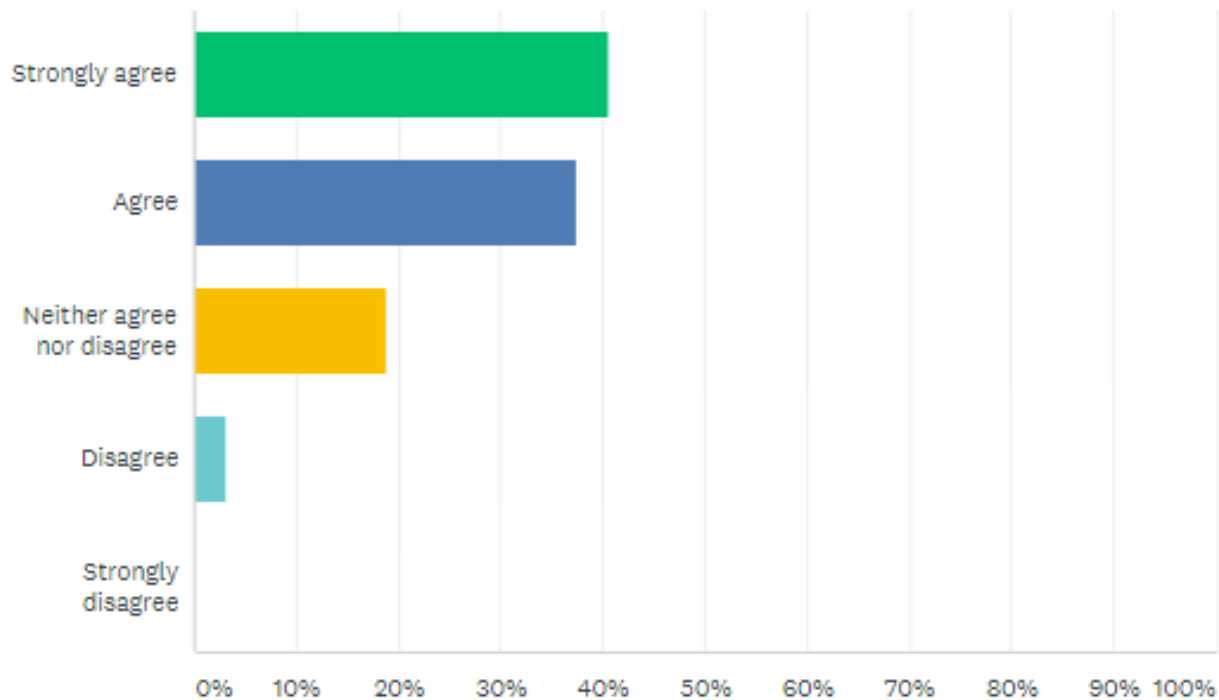

Answered: 32 Skipped: 0

Values/pillars – Curiosity

Another suggested pillar or value is 'Curiosity' (Linking with George Cayley and Dr Mary Jones' book: George Cayley's Curious Summer. Do you agree that 'Curiosity' is something the school represents, lives and breathes?

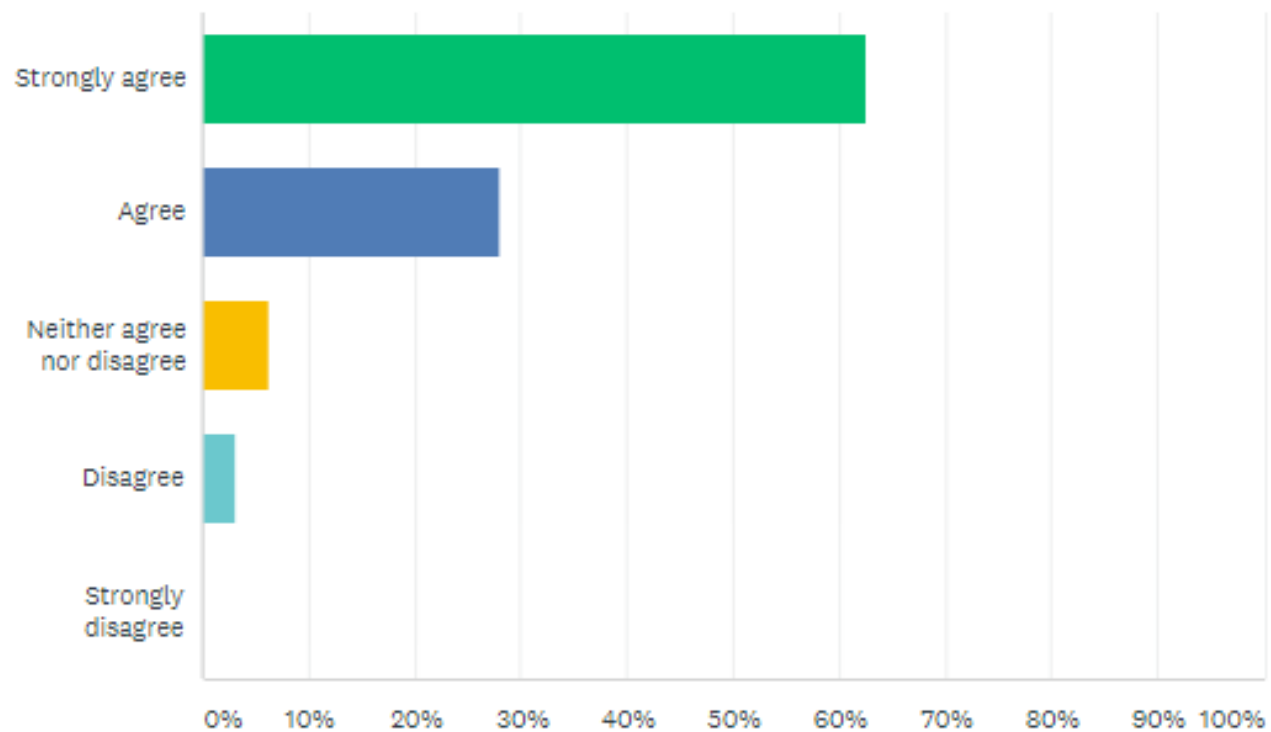

Answered: 32 Skipped: 0

Values/pillars – Respect

Another suggested pillar or value is 'Respect'. Do you agree that 'Respect' is something the school represents, lives and breathes?

Answered: 32 Skipped: 0

Values/pillars – Other suggestions

Kindness	5
Caring	15
Family	16
Individuality	3
Nurturing	3
Friendly	15

Values/pillars – Summary

Adopt 'For the Children' as our 'motto' and basis for all the work we do.

Potentially keep 'Ready to Fly' as one of the values/pillars.

Values/pillars – Summary

Use the values/pillars:

- Family
- Nature
- Rainbow
- Respect
- Ready to Fly

And incorporate 'caring' and 'friendly' into some of these values.

These mirror the Ofsted areas of: Personal Development, Quality of Teaching and Behaviour/Attitude.

Possible Logo – Drawn by an ex-governor (FoC)

