Acting Headteacher : Mr O Cooper

Dear Families and Friends,

What a busy, short half-term it has been! The children have made me extremely proud with how they have excelled in a very turbulent but productive four weeks. Not least during their recent assessments (in Class 2 & 3), but also in their day-to-day work and visits to/from other adults and establishments.

Class 3 visited The Rotunda as part of their Woodend art exhibition project. The class met a 'curator' and asked some very inquisitive questions, before then getting an opportunity to investigate artefacts held in the Museum – the Museum staff were extremely impressed that we were the only school to have correctly identified all the artefacts!

Class 2 has impressed this half-term too. The feedback we have had from all the different teachers that have been into the class over the last couple of weeks has been really positive and showed what a great and adaptable school we really are!

Class 1 also impressed me during our assembly with our visiting author, Paul Worsley. Their answers/questions during the reading of his book were really mature and it shows what a grown-up bunch they are becoming!

On the theme of reading, on Friday 7th June, the school will be holding a Pyjamarama Dress-up/Reading day. Students can come dressed in their pyjamas or comfortable clothing (with appropriate footwear, of course). The students will take part in a peer reading session, similar to World Book Day, as well as take part in 'bedtime' reading activities in their classes! There will be a £1 voluntary donation for students dressing up – the proceeds of this will go to the Year 6 Edinburgh Trip fund via The Friends of Brompton School.

Dance Club will now continue for the rest of the year – an e-mail was sent out about this earlier in the week. Should your child no longer wish to attend, please contact Mr Cooper so we can allow other students to attend this fully-subscribed club.

Finally, enjoy your Bank Holiday and half-term! School reopens on Monday 3rd June.

End of Term

Break up Friday 19th July

(Top Right) We had the exciting opportunity to meet Paul Worsley, a local author, this week! Paul read his book The Adventures of Cato the Cayman Cat and even kindly donated some copies of his books for the children to read at home. The children also have the opportunity to help with ideas and illustrations for Paul's next instalment of Cato the Cayman Cat!

(Below) Well done to Charlie and Oliver who attended cricket trails this week! Both players played really well and were unlucky to be on the losing side in a very tight match!

(Below and Bottom Right) Class 3 visited The Rotunda Museum on Tuesday. They met a 'curator' and asked lots of inquisitive and thoughtful questions! They also got the chance to identify artefacts from the Museum!
